

MUSIC WORKSHOPS

and Discussion Groups.

This is your opportunity to gain music tuition from a multi-talented teacher. Paul takes your tuition to another level through not only his expertise but also by presenting his students with more opportunities. Taking piano lessons with Paul may only be the beginning as he will help build on your skills through his vision to develop... "Music for Life".

Aspiring composers will broaden their musical horizons with group workshop session with Professional Australian Composer and Musician Paul Kenny.

This intense workshop experience can help young musicians improve their musical skills. Seminar-style discussions include notation, music theory, arranging, orchestration and text setting.

No prior composition experience is necessary but participants should be able to read treble and bass clef and are comfortable with various time signatures, key signatures and have some training in an instrument or voice. Usually grade 3 (AMEB or TCL) or above in music would be required or just a passion for song writing.

PRESS RELEASE PRESS RELEASE
